INFORMATION

For Those Who Cannot Attend

Arrangements have been made to broadcast as much of the Farm and Home Week program as possible. Features to be broadcast are indicated by an asterisk (*) and can be heard over station W I L L, 580 on your radio dial.

INFORMATION FOR VISITORS

Registration.—Every visitor is urged to register immediately upon arrival. There is no registration fee. Registration headquarters will be maintained in the Auditorium.

Maps.—Maps of the campus and surrounding vicinity are available at the registration desk in the Auditorium.

Meals.—Noon-day meals may be secured at the Illini Union Building between the hours of 11:15 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. There are also several restaurants in the University area.

Rooms.—There is a VERY ACUTE HOUSING SITUATION in Champaign and Urbana and rooms for overnight guests are extremely limited. All Farm and Home Week visitors who can possibly do so should plan to return home at night. Those who live too far away to return home daily should be sure to arrange for accommodations before coming to the campus. The University Administration and the Farm and Home Week Committee regret that they cannot take the responsibility for securing rooms for Farm and Home Week guests. A list of any available rooms will be kept at the Auditorium but we know that the numbers will be very small.

Lost and Found.—Articles lost should be reported and those found turned in to registration headquarters in the Auditorium.

Illness or Accidents.—Illness or accidents should be reported promptly to the registration desk in the Auditorium. First Aid service will be rendered by the University Health Station, telephone 7-1821.

Publications.—Bulletins, circulars and other printed information of the College of Agriculture are on display in the Auditorium. Cards are provided on which requests may be made for any of the publications desired.

For identification of speakers, see pp. 19 to 21.
